No. Not at all. No worries. I just want you to know that the characterization of the town hall meeting was not accurate.

Andrew,

I know I was not involving you. Just bringing up the issues with the student organizers who are reaching out to me for help. It was for them. Am not looking to involve you. Hope it didn't come off like I was implicating you.

Hi Gibson,

FYI. I didn't want to get into it in the middle of the WWNC meeting, but my organization e-blasted our database to inform all of our stakeholders (merchants, property owners, and residents) about the town hall. It is not a true statement to say that merchants were not aware of the meeting.

Give me a ring if you have any questions about the outreach.

Andrew
